Dave & Mary Elliff

Seattle, Washington

When Dave and Mary Elliff left Arkansas, they left family and familiar culture to plant a new church in the Pacific Northwest.

"In the South, we have the Bible Belt. In Seattle, people call Roosevelt, the neighborhood where we're planting, the Metaphysical Belt. 95% of the people here don't attend an evangelical church," says Dave. Read The Story

PRAYER REQUEST

- For strength for the team as they work in a challenging, unreached community.
- For hearts to be prepared for the gospel in Roosevelt.

TUNES THAT TEACH: PEACE BE STILL Mark 4:35-41

Storms (both physical and spiritual) often prove to be _____. Mary Ann Baker wrote the _____ for a hymn which reveals the _____ and constant _____ of Jesus in life's storms.

The Sea of Galilee is a _____ in Israel, subject to frequent _____. One fell upon Jesus and the apostles, who panicked, so Jesus used this to teach. The hymn "Peace be Still" describes:

- The Crisis – They were surprised because all were obeying Jesus' _____. They were surprised because Jesus appeared to be _____. When God seems _____ or _____ He is drawing us to _____. He promises His presence, not a _____. Be still and wait upon God. (Isaiah 50:10)
- The Calm – Jesus rebuked the _____ which immediately _____. Then He rebuked the _____ for their lack of _____. But they were still _____ (v.41) and asked "Who is this"? They (like us) were still learning.
- The Key – Each verse of the hymn begins with "_____" for this is the key relationship. It is enough for the _____ to be like his _____ (Matt.10:25). To avoid the storm they would have to leave His _____. Jesus was in the storm with them!
- The servant like the Master will face storms.
- The Master is _____ than any storm.
- The servant need face no storm _____.
